

THE 9TH AMERICAN

BUSINESS MISSION & TOUR TO CHINA

For Only $1,299.00

March 8 - 16, 2004

Now is the time to capitalize on the Business Opportunities in China. Consider these few simple facts:

- China's accession into the World Trade Organization reduces import duties and removes key non-tariff barriers.
- China is the world's fastest expanding major economy.
- China's domestic market is expanding rapidly.
- Fortune 500 companies have invested heavily in China.
- Adequate domestic vendor base needed.
- Tour includes areas of largest manufacturing activity concentration in the world.

Itinerary:

Days 1-3: Beijing (Tian An Men Square, Great Wall)

Days 4: Suzhou (Tiger Hill, Liu Gardens, Silk Plant)

Days 5: Hangzhou (West Lake, Embroidery Institute, Tea Farm)

Day 6&7: Shanghai (Bund, Yu Garden Nanjing Road)

Itinerary to include other sightseeing areas, shopping and the beautiful scenic landscape of China
